

In this talk I will discuss the notion of lattice-polarized irreducible holomorphic symplectic manifolds and the construction of their moduli spaces. Then I will give a generalization of mirror symmetry as known for K3 surfaces to higher dimensions. In the case of fourfolds of K3^[2]-type we will study mirror families of polarized fourfolds.