

The Radon transformation was introduced and studied by Brylinski in 1986. It is a powerful tool in the study of the topology of algebraic varieties that can be seen as a generalization of Picard-Lefschetz theory. In this talk we shall discuss applications of the Radon transformation to the topology of the universal family of hypersurfaces in projective space and to quadric bundles.