Given a Mori Dream Space X we construct via tropicalization a model dominating all the small Q-factorial modifications. Via this construction we recover a Minkowski bases for the Newton-Okounkov bodies on X and hence the movable cone for X. This is a work in progress with Elisa Postinghel.