

I would like to discuss some relations between the problem of classifying modules of finite length over  $k[x,y]$  and motivic Donaldson-Thomas invariants. In particular, I will compare our result for length lesser or equal than four with the motivic class of the moduli stack parametrizing such modules. This is a joint work with Andrea Ricolfi.