

After reviewing the envisioned Tannakian viewpoint on mixed motives and giving various definitions of motivic categories I will explain how one can model a subcategory of the category of étale motives generated by a 1-motive by modules over a commutative algebra in a stable category of representations of a general linear group over the integers. This builds upon rational results by Iwanari.