The modular representations of a finite group form a tensor triangulated category, and my talk will be devoted to explaining what it means that this category is locally regular.

This property is then used to describe the local dualisable objects. All this is based on joint work with Dave Benson, Srikanth Iyengar, and Julia Pevtsova.