

REASSESSING SCIENTIFIC COLLABORATION

A final Workshop

28 October 2021

Museo Nazionale Scienza e Tecnologia Leonardo da Vinci

9.30	Opening and introduction (Luca Guzzardi)
10.00 - 11.00	First morning session (Chair: Andrea Guardo) Brad Wray - The Epistemic Significance of the Size of Research Teams Eugenio Petrovich - The acknowledgements of scientific publications between scientific collaboration and academic signaling
11.00 - 11.15	COFFEE BREAK
11.15 - 12.15	Second morning session (Chair: Massimo Lazzaroni) Tommasso Maccacaro - Spontaneous scientific collaboration: a personal recollection Lucia Rossi - Physics research as large international collaborative enterprise
12.15 - 13.00	Discussion
13.00 - 14.00	LUNCH
14.00 - 15.45	Afternoon session (Chair and Introduction: Leonardo Gariboldi) Marco Giammarchi - Astroparticle Physics and Particle Physics. Not only size matters Martin Kater - Research on rice genetics as an interdisciplinary and cross-institutional collaborative effort Letizia Bonizzoni - Interdisciplinary projects in the field of Cultural Heritage conservation
15.45 - 16.45	Discussion
16.45 - 17.00	COFFEE BREAK
17.00	Free visit to museum collections